

AUSTRALIAN EQUINE FACILITATED LEARNING PTY LTD

Invites you to the first

National Equine Facilitated Learning Forum

Saturday 17th September 2011

9.30am (10am start) – 4.30pm

Tooradin Sports & Social Club

Recreation Reserve, South Gippsland Hwy, Tooradin

$50.00 (Includes catering)

Australian Equine Facilitated Learning Pty Ltd (AEFL) was established to promote awareness of and participation in interactions between horses and people in a way that is positive, fulfilling and safe. The first National EFL forum will be held in Tooradin, Victoria on the 17th of September 2011.

An opportunity not to be missed, this forum is a must for anyone with an interest in EFL and equine therapy programs. The aim of the forum is to provide support and knowledge to a new but growing Equine Therapy Sector. Specialist guest speakers, question time with our professional panel, live link up with Franklin Levinson and an introduction to two new horse disciplines TREC & Horse Agility, plus information on new and upcoming AEFL programs, make up a day packed with information.

Book by Monday 12th Sept 2011 – online at www.efl.net.au or phone 0457 705089

For more information please contact AEFL on info@efl.net.au
